In the foreword, Difford points out that all the text in this book was "de novo" and not reproduced from his earlier history published in 1933. With the help of P.W. Day (Springbok manager of the 1937 tour) and J. Sacks (Sports Editor Rand Daily Mail), Difford provides brief overviews of all tours to and from South Africa as well as the New Zealand Imperial Services' team visit in 1919, the Junior Springboks in Argentina 1932, and the Currie Cup tournament, 1889-1936. The 1938 British team has 18 pages devoted to it, including biographies of the players and a list of matches to be played on the Tour. Seldom seen. In splendid condition.
