RUGBY AT NEWLANDS by David McLennan & Chris Schoeman

with contributions from Hymie Sibul & Don Vale

RUGBY AT NEWLANDS

For more than 125 years Newlands, in the lee of Table Mountain, has lived in the hearts of South African rugby players and supporters alike.

Rugby at Newlands records the history of this popular venue through accounts of the fifty Tests that have been played there since 1891, each set in the social history of the time, and richly illustrated with photographs and match programmes.

Discover the epic journey of SPRINGBOK RUGBY at Newlands – the oldest continually used rugby stadium in the world.

“A fascinating and unique history of a world-famous stadium”

– GAVIN COWLEY
